poco

Slim and sleek POCO makes the most of your work surface. Less than 2" deep and with both horizontal or vertical mounting options, POCO is a great choice for personal or group power needs. Built from extruded aluminum, POCO can reach lengths up to nine feet. Perfect for labs, study benches, or common areas.

In those instances where work surface mounting is not an option, POCO mounts to screens and tool rails. Available in silver, white, or black housings with black or gray fascias, POCO is an excellent option for your furniture.
